Miss M. Williamson, of Ilwaco, is the accredited representative of The Astorian and will take care of all items of news, orders for subscriptions and all kinds of printing.

ILWACO

Miss Alice Burch arrived the latter part of last week from Portland where she has been studying music, to spend the holidays with her father and mother of this city after which she will return to her studies.

Clifford Sweeney and Jack Pettit, two young sportsmen, were visitors to Bear River the first of the week, returning with between 25 and 30 ducks as proof of their marksmanship.

The Xmas ball held at Long Beach in the Assembly Hall was a big success as was anticipated. Ilwaco was almost as well represented as Long Beach itself. Owing to the weather which made it possible for all to attend. A special supper was served at midnight by Mrs. T. Lyniff in her Driftwood cottage. The dance lasted until 3:30 p. m. when the dancers departed declaring Long Beach O. K. when it comes to entertaining.

Dan Williams of Chinook was in Ilwaco Saturday shaking hands with his host of friends and acquaintances. Osborn Goulter and wife left recently for Portland.

Angus Jack of Frances, Wash., who was professor of the Ilwaco public school last term is at present visiting in Ilwaco. He will return soon to his school in Frances.

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian church last Saturday afternoon when Miss Lela Potana of Ilwaco and Roy Moralee of the Breakers were united in marriage. Rev. Morse officiated. The hour was 2 p. m. and the church was crowded with the many friends and acquaintances of the young couple. The bride was charmingly gowned in white mull, her long white veil being fastened in her hair by orange blossoms. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony and congratulations the bridal party were

A Religious Author's Statement.
For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days, unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin, Prop.

scribe to The Morning Astorian. Vered by carrier.

If you will take Foley's Grano Laxative until the bowels become regular you will not have to take purgatives constantly, as Foley's Grano Laxative positively cures chronic constipation and sluggish liver. Pleasant to take. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin, Prop.

driven to the home of the bride where a wedding supper was served. They departed in the evening amid a shower of rice, for Tloga, where they will make their home.

The game of association football played Xmas day on the Ilwaco grounds between the Chinook and the Ilwaco team, was won by the latter on a forfeit.

William Rellenda returned Tuesday to North Head after several days spent with relatives in Spokane.

A. E. King returned Monday from Oregon City where he spent Xmas with his wife and children.

Sam Baseel of Chinook was a visitor to Ilwaco Monday.

Messrs. Rube Rogers, Ralph Grable and Claud Koford left the first of the week for the Nasel where they will spend the remainder of the winter fishing and hunting.

Bills are out for a free dance to be given Thursday evening in the Ilwaco opera house by the young men of Ilwaco. Good music has been obtained and everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Bert Sprague of Chinook was a visitor to Ilwaco Tuesday.

R. A. Hawkins made a flying trip to Astoria the first of the week.

China Paints Itself Red.

The Chinese paint the whole country red, figuratively speaking, on New Year in more senses than one. Red is the color with them which denotes good luck and prosperity, and all the New Year cards and invitations are on paper of that color. Every child gets its New Year present wrapped in red paper, and red inscriptions are pasted over the doors of the houses. These inscriptions bear characters praying for good fortune, wealth and happiness, and they are posted on each side of the outer doors of the houses. New pictures of Chinese generals are put on the front doors; the houses are decorated and made clean. Among other things, eggs are dyed red and are offered to the gods. Dinner parties are got up in bright vermillion. The red used is that which you find around our firecrackers, and, as for them, the Chinese spend more in firecrackers on New Year than we do on the Fourth of July.—Philadelphia Press.

Kaiser's New Year Dinner.
At the Kaiser's New Year dinner the old customs relating to personal services rendered to his majesty by the paladins of the realm are revived in all their glory. The royal cupbearer presents to the Kaiser the first goblet of golden wine, the lord carver brings him the first cut of meat, and the supreme master of the hunt places a pheasant, gorgeously decorated, before him.—New York Herald.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold or a gripe developing into pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it cures the most obstinate deep seated coughs and colds. Why take anything else. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin, Prop.

MISERY IN STOMACH

AND INDIGESTION RELIEVED IN ABOUT FIVE

EAT YOUR FAVORITE FOODS

Diapiesin Not Only Digests Your Foods But Prevents Fermentation
and Regulates Your Stomach
Promptly—There Will Be Few Dyspeptics Here.

There would not be a case of Indigestion here if readers who are subject to Stomach trouble knew the tremendous digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourdest, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, Nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Eructations of undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach and intestines clean and fresh.

If your Stomach is sour or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't tempt you, why not get a 50-cent case today from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and, besides, one case is often sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

Where Willie Was.
The professor (at the dinner table)—Oh, by the way, Mrs. Chopticks, have you seen your little boy Willie lately? Mrs. Chopticks—No, professor, I have not seen him since 10 o'clock, and I can't imagine what has become of him. In fact, I am very much worried about him. Professor—Well, seeing Martha pour me out that glass of water just now reminded me of something that I had on my mind to tell you some time ago, but which unfortunately escaped my memory. It was just about 10 o'clock, I think, that I saw little Willie fall down the well.—Atlanta Constitution.

Sympathy For the Orphans.
An elephant while stamping through the jungle one day quite unintentionally stepped upon a mother bird, crushing it to death. Hearing the cries of the little brood in the bushes near by, she sought out the nest and with a sympathetic sigh said: "Poor little things! I've been a mother myself. I'll keep you warm." And she then proceeded to sit upon the nest.—From George T. Laurin's Fable, "The Kind Hearted She Elephant."

Modern Version.
"Then you will be ever at my beck and call?" inquired Aladdin.
"With the exception of Tuesday and Friday afternoons, Monday and Saturday evenings and every other Sunday," firmly replied the genie.—Washington Herald.

Simple Remedy For La Grippe.
Racking la grippe coughs that may develop into pneumonia over night are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. The sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and a dangerous condition is quickly averted. Take only Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin, Prop.

BRAKES REFUSE TO WORK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—Refusal of the brakes to work properly caused a rear-end collision between two Geary-street cars at the corner of Buchanan street today. Five men were painfully injured, and a number of others slightly hurt.

Many little lives have been saved by Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is the only safe remedy for infants and children as it contains no opiates or other narcotic drugs, and children like Foley's Honey and Tar. Careful mothers keep a bottle in the house. Refuse substitutes. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin, Prop.
